UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

The ERASMUS+ project Homo'poly seeks to promote understanding and acceptance of diversity, especially homosexuality.

The aim of this project is to contribute towards a better understanding of homosexuality in tertiary and secondary education. A cross-sectoral approach has been adopted in cooperation with eight countries, with one university and one secondary school participating from each country respectively.

The project thus addresses students and lecturers in teaching colleges and universities, as well as students and teachers in secondary education.

Participating countries: Belgium, England, Germany, Hungary, Poland, Spain, The Netherlands and Turkey.
